It took all of thirty seconds for two shots to bring the world of Margaret Tabaaha crashing down around her. After losing her husband in Afghanistan during the first year of Operation Enduring Freedom, her two sons were all she had left. Now they had been taken from her violently, deliberately, plunging her into a whiskey bottle and stripping away her reason for living. When Arthur Nakai receives a call from his first love, Margaret, her voice pleading for his help, it comes as he is attending a wake for one of the men he considered a brother from his days in the Marines 6th LAR Wolf Pack Battalion. Feeling a deep and responsible obligation to help her, Arthur soon finds himself involved in the multi-billion-dollar world of the oil and gas industry and coming face-to-face with an old adversary, Elias Dayton. Their paths had crossed when Arthur was a member of the Shadow Wolves, an elite tactical unit within US Customs and Border Protection.

Now Dayton runs

Patriot Security, a

poisoning of Native

lands. As Arthur works

through the case from his end, Navajo police

chief Jake Bilagody

between the oil checkerboard. But when

Arthur learns the

make sense of it.

Because if the clues are right, he will be forced to make a decision that will haunt him for the rest of his life.

"Slavery and intemperance: the two country." From an early age, Catherine Lawrence devoted her life to the relief of the suffering of others. Like many strong women of her time, she eventually embraced abolition, the temperance movement, and women's suffrage. A deeply religious woman, she felt a calling to help others. During the American Civil War, she worked as a nurse to wounded and dying soldiers.
