The Bone Bed, the 20th novel in Patricia Cornwell 's Kay Scarpetta Series was one of the most disappointing books in the series. Is it just me that finds the author 's writing style in the latest books different from the first ones? I don 't like the writing in this book at all!!! I had no idea what was going on from page 1 to the end.

Her genuine affection for, and interest in, her main character radiates through the novel, and her research for The Bone Bed is as thorough as ever. Where Cornwell excels is in her ability to transcend the clichés and deliver a good, old fashioned thriller that has enough CSI-style touches to draw in the forensics-obsessed fan while never taking her eye off her plotting and characters (Sunday Business Post Ireland)
